Engineers have found that a blunt nose and tapering body offers the least resistance to wind, whereas flat, places all the passengers forward of the rear wheels and permits of chassis improvements that eliminate jolts and ripples in riding.

Engineers of three of the world's great engineering nations are devoting more and more of their time to the study of aerodynamics, or streamlining. Aero-dynamic Research predicts there will be revolutionary changes in the automobiles of the future.

THEY'RE NUMBERING THE CRICKETEERS NOW

The fans of "down under" think this new innovation is quite a good idea. Here we see cricketers, wearing numbers on their backs, going out to field in a match at Brisbane, Australia. Now the stranger to the game can pretend that he knows them all by name.

WHERE FOURTEEN MEN PERISHED IN MINE DISASTER

The top picture shows a scene at the pithead at Grassmoor Colliery, near Chesterfield, England, where rescuers and relatives gathered to await news of the men trapped in a mysterious explosion underground. Fourteen men were killed and six injured. The lower picture is of great interest in view of the above disaster. It shows members of the Rescue Staff at the new Lancashire and Cheshire Mines Rescue Station at Bolton, Lancashire, who will, in future, be available for duty at any coal mine in the vicinity, should any trouble occur.

CHRISTMAS GIVING

UPHELD AT DEBATE

The practice of giving Christmas presents is in no danger of elimination so far as members of the Good Companions Club are concerned. By a large majority they defeated the resolution, "That the giving of Christmas presents has become so commercialized as to be a detriment to the real Christmas spirit." In a debate at the "Nursing Home" Monday night, Helen Saunders and Mrs. Chapell alternated as speakers. Mrs. Saunders, during the debate, and Doug, Robertson and Larry Cobb led the opposition with Helen Browne and Mrs. Chapell on the negative. Several other speakers took part, as the debate was in the form of an open forum.

Norma Black conducted an inspiring devotional period on the theme of friendship. Following the meeting, Misses Dalgleish, Hilborn and Owens served refreshments.

FIVE MILE CREEK SCHOOL

A crowd that packed Five Mile Creek schoolhouse the evening of Friday, December 8, attended the white dress, novelty auction and dance given by the residents of the community to raise money for the children's Christmas tree.

In the whist drive Miss Alice Fisher won first prize, Betty Tunsting won second, and the consolation went to Mrs. Kemp.

Frank Ryan was first in the gents, Harry Hookay second, and Dick Evans secured the consolation.

The raffle for the cake was won by Roy Mitchell of Grande Prairie.

Dancing followed later in the evening at which, Fennell's orchestra supplied the music.

There was a good representation from the Grande Prairie and from Twilght.

The Christmas tree will be held in the "Nursing Home" on the evening of December 21.

Those in charge wish to thank those merchants of Grande Prairie who donated prizes for the novelty auction.

BOOK TALK

By J. C. B.

Two Black Sheep. Warwick Deeping.

With characteristic kindliness and sympathy, Mr. Deeping gives us yet another picture of two quiet, unassuming people who have come up against life. Set in England, Italy, and Sicily, in hotels and luxury trains, "Two Black Sheep" is the story of Henry Vane, who after fifteen years in prison, is trying to make his way into a world that is strange to him, and Edith Summers, governess to the untamable Sally, daughter of Mrs. Pym of the brassy hair and equally brassy temper.

Possessing a quiet straightforwardness that is Warwick Deeping's, the story moves to a happy conclusion.

Characteristic of the man who wrote "Sorrell and Son."

The Siamese Twin Mystery, Elery Queen.

Who killed Dr. Xavier and then his brother Mark?

Elery Queen and the Inspector, returning from a camping trip, find themselves facing the dangers of a forest fire. They take the road up Arrow Mountain, and to their surprise find at the top a large house.

It is the home of Dr. Xavier, well known as a surgeon, who, though retired, still carries on experiments in his laboratory with animals. In a mysterious house, from which it is impossible to escape on account of the fire, a small group of frightened and bewildered people, the Queens solve the complicated plot.

Different from his other books, yet written in the same provocative, thought-compelling style, with "The Siamese Twin Mystery," Mr. Queen has given us a real "thriller."

What One Girl Wore

By Betty Brownlee

Have you finished all your Christmas shopping? Probably not. No matter what resolutions we make each year to do more shopping, we always find a number of gifts we must hurry out to buy in the last few weeks.

If there are any women's gifts that you must get during these last few weeks, and you are in a bit of a hurry, what to buy, let me suggest that you look over the lingerie that the stores are displaying. The season's lingerie is one back to fashion with a bang—so that they may be worn with the new lingerie gown.

Lingerie gowns are smart, too. And these ones are feminine in line. Consider the lovely pair sketched this week. The charmingly youthful jacket top of slimmest brown velvet with tiny tulle under at the front is fastening. The high neckline top with a heart collar. And the lovely trousers of white chiffon velvet are joined with a tiny brown trim. These

NATURE HAPPINESS

Men should not try to stifle that feeling of great emptiness in their lives because they think it smacks of inactivity. It is the natural expression of the soul asking for increased activity, and through it, an unobtainable enjoyment of life. Olga Hildreth thinks girls should be taught how to enjoy their lives, for this faculty is more important to a woman than Latin and mathematics.

Enjoyment of life is not achieved by the mere doing of things, but through the humble method of understanding oneself and recognizing the acute human need for self-expression in activity.

There is considerable snow in the district. A number of farmers are busy drawing grain to the elevators at Warburg.

Elmer P. Hick of Grande Prairie is in the district in connection with church work.

Owing to the stormy weather there was a small attendance at the U. P. A. meeting.

There have been many showers and windfalls in the district of late.

A Warner had the misfortune to meet his cabinet on the way to work. With the exception of suffering a few slight burns from the stove, the passengers were unharmed.

HOLLYWOOD IS AMERICA'S FILM CAPITAL IN NAME ONLY

Although the name, Hollywood, is synonymous throughout the world with film-making and is cherished in the popular imagination as the home of the stars, more pictures are made today outside the confines of the Hollywood of today than it can comfortably hold.

More pictures are made in the famous city of Hollywood today than in any other city in the world.

Only three major studios—United Artists, Paramount and RKO-Radio—are left in Hollywood.

United Artists—Paramount and RKO-Radio are left in Culver City, Universal in Universal City, Warner Brothers—First National in Burbank, and Fox in Foxboro.

Visitors to southern California frequently send their way to Hollywood with the idea they can walk from one studio to another and discover some of the stars who are making the big money.

Only stars who have made all their pictures on the same Hollywood lot during the past ten years are Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks.

It was a decade ago that Miss Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks simultaneously launched "Dorothy" in the "Hollywood Hall" (Hollywood) as their first picture at the studio where Mary's latest vehicle, "Secrets," which will be shown at the Capitol.

It is dangerous to concentrate all the social interests in the narrow confines of the family. Children are greatly hurt by unnatural demands made on them; husbands are mortal and sometimes unfaithful, though seldom to joyous wives.

The affection of friends, then, must be treasured. Most of the enjoyment of life depends on pleasant, creative activity combined with companionship—and both can be enjoyed in hobbies.

Shutting the world out of marriage is to shut out a prodigious treasure store of riches and joy that shall be rich. Work to be enjoyed profoundly must be done with a purpose.

Learn to deeply enjoy little things—like to do as though there were no one else in the world, that shall be rich. Work to be enjoyed profoundly must be done with a purpose.

PEORIA NEWS

PEORIA, Dec. 11.—Professor Martin, President A. Elwood and Elder Reiser left for Warburg on Wednesday after holding several meetings.

A public meeting was held on Sunday afternoon, Elder Reiser spoke on "Christ Returning."

On Monday evening, following a good program, Elder Reiser chose for his topic, "Master, what shall I do to be saved?"

On Tuesday afternoon there was a meeting at the school question, "Church or Public School?"

In the evening about one hundred attended the social given at the new home of Dan Reiser. The affair was also a farewell party to the minister.

The most pleasant evening, which was opened with prayer, was spent in playing games.

Central Relief Reports Good Progress

A meeting of the Central Relief Committee was held in the office of P. J. Toole on Tuesday afternoon and a general survey of the work done up to that time made.

Frank Walker, representing the R. S. B. reported that his Christmas relief drive put on by the Legion was progressing satisfactorily.

Dr. Aiken reported that arrangements had been made for holding a dance in the Elks' Hall for the benefit of relief.

Mrs. A. H. McQuarrie, representing the W. L. informed the meeting that three boxes of clothing had been received from the United Church of Canada.

Arrangements were completed with the Order of the Eastern Star, I. O. O. F., C. O. I. T. (Gladie and Junior), Women's Institute and Central Committee for the putting up and distribution of Christmas parcels in town and country.

The committee wishes to acknowledge cash donations from the following: Mrs. G. H. P. Brangard, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cameron, and Mrs. J. H. Hunter.

HERE AND THERE

The Canadian Pacific Railway supply train, Strathmore, Alberta, had the best Holstein cow in the four-year-old or over (not in milk) class at the Royal Winter Fair recently held at Toronto.

Buff Winter Sports Carnival will be held from January 31 to February 4. It is assumed that the carnival will be followed by a series of sports week-ends, each thing devoted to one particular type of sport.

The problem of truck-rail competition was declared a national one by S. Hayes, M.A., in a recent address before the Engineering Institute. He saw regulation and restriction in areas where the truck does not belong as the only solution.

Christmas festivities this year will be enlivened by Japanese oranges, of which 25,000 boxes arrived at Victoria recently aboard the Empress of Canada, for distribution to a number of Canadian cities. Five thousand boxes were left at Victoria and the fruit will doubtless feature in the Empress Hotel Yuletide celebrations.

People Travelling in Europe Forget Most Foreigners Speak English

An Englishman who knew no language but his own had lost his way in Rome. In his perplexity it occurred to him to write the name of his hotel in large letters on his card and hand it to the first foreign-looking individual he met.

An Italian thus accosted turned, and with the charming manner of his race, accompanied the perplexed Englishman for about 20 minutes in silence until they reached the hotel designated. Then the tourist poured out words thanks in the only language at his command.

The Englishman looked at him in amazement, then remarked in perfect English: "I thought you were deaf and dumb."

TRYING OUT NEW UNIFORMS

Japanese Soldiers To Report On Silk And Wool Cloth

Official announcement expressed by the Japanese War Office over a report that silk uniforms were to be provided for the soldiers, has apparently been retracted. Experimental uniforms have now been issued to some battalions. Some of the uniforms are made entirely of silk, but most of the cloth is a mixture of wool and raw silk. The silk-cloth soldiers will be asked what they think of the new uniforms, and especially in preserving warmth, effects of rain and snow on them, cost of washing and repairing.

EASTERN PASTURE SOIL

Experiments on pasture improvement, says the Dominion Field Husbandry Division, have shown that the outstanding cause of failure in pasture lands in Eastern Canada undoubtedly is the marked deficiency in soil fertility. Many years of cropping without return of plant food has impoverished the soil.

When you are lonely, and want the comfort of rest, try taking a bath.

Soft flabby bacon is in the majority of cases, the product of under-finished hogs.

Soils derived from limestone rocks appear to contain considerably more sulfur than the unshattered rock.
